Philosophy and Approach: I value person-centered therapy and prioritize establishing trust and safety in the counseling relationship. I utilize an eclectic approach with an emphasis on psychodynamic and attachment-based work.

Formal Education and Training: I hold a master's degree in counseling psychology from Northwestern University. Major coursework included Individuals and Systems, Human Growth and Development, Theories of Counseling, Adult Psychopathology, Cultural Diversity in Counseling, and Group and Organizational Dynamics. I have additional training in the Attachment, Regulation, and Competency (ARC) framework and Child Parent Psychotherapy (CPP).

As a Licensee of the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists, I abide by its Code of Ethics. To maintain my license, I am required to participate in continuing education, taking classes dealing with subjects relevant to this profession.

Fees: My fee is $270 for intake sessions and $180 for following sessions, with a 24-hour cancellation policy. If you cancel within 24 hours of your scheduled appointment, you will be charged the normal hourly fee.

As a client of an Oregon licensee, you have the following rights:

- To expect that a licensee has met the qualifications of training and experience required by state law;
- To examine public records maintained by the Board and to have the Board confirm credentials of a licensee;
- To obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics (Oregon Administrative Rules 833-100);
- To report complaints to the Board;
- To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;
- To be assured of privacy and confidentiality while receiving services as defined by rule or law, with the following exceptions:
 1. Reporting suspected child abuse;
 2. Reporting imminent danger to you or others;
 3. Reporting information required in court proceedings or by your insurance company, or other relevant agencies;
 4. Providing information concerning licensee case consultation or supervision; and
 5. Defending claims brought by you against me;
- To be free from discrimination because of age, color, culture, disability, ethnicity, national origin, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, or socioeconomic status.
